

By downloading the photo, you accept the following terms and conditions of use:

#The selected photo is the property of Travemünde Week or the photographer commissioned by it / @segel-bilder.de and is subject to restricted usage rights. It is to be used strictly for press releases about the Travemünde Week. This form of publication is free of charge.

#The photos may not be posted on social networks.

#All other forms of publication are only permitted against payment of an agreed fee to the respective photographer or with the consent of the suppliers of the photos and the holders of the rights to the photos. Exceptions must be specified in writing.

#The motifs may not be passed on or charged to third parties!

#The user of the photo is in all events obligated under Section 13 UrhG [German Copyright Law] to state the source of the photo.

#The photos may be used only within the editorial environment and in connection with reports about Travemünde or the Travemünde Week. Any use of the photos in direct connection with advertising or the intention to make a profit is prohibited.

#The rights of third parties must be verified (no existing model or property release).

The photos are subject to restricted usage rights. Resizing (enlarging or reducing the image, cropping), altering the colour space and changing the colour, contrast and brightness values is permitted. Any other changes require the express consent of the copyright holder (@segel-bilder.de).

#The photos may not be used in connection with anti-constitutional or discriminatory content.

The permanent storage of the photos on storage media or servers of any type whatsoever is not permitted; any such storage constitutes an infringement of copyright. The photos may be used on the Internet for a period of one year.

Non-compliance with the terms and conditions of use shall entitle the photographers, photo suppliers or copyright holders to charge additional fees in accordance with German MFM (Mittelstandsgemeinschaft Fotomarketing) recommendations.
